5 JUICY QUESTIONS FOR...

Paul Frangie,

29, Chef and TV Personality

1

What's the most romantic thing you've ever done?

I once took a girl out for a surprise candlelit picnic on the beach, with sushi and bubbly.

Where do you take a date when you want to impress her?

My kitchen! I prefer creating an intimate situation in which we can really bond rather than grand, showy gestures.

What could a girl cook for you for a perfect dinner?

A steak with a really awesome béarnaise sauce, and one better than I could make myself, would really impress me. And if she made homemade ice cream... wow. I think everyone knows that ice cream is my favourite indulgence!

You're very stylish. How important is a good fashion sense?

Very—it shows me their artistic and creative side, and I think if you have a clear sense of personal style and are comfortable with that, it makes you feel confident. It's a reflection of your personality.

What's your desert-island must-have?

Wood, so I could make a fire!
